

THDA Public Notice:

Please Review and Comment on Housing and Community Development Activities in Tennessee

In the recently released 2023-2024 Consolidated Annual Performance and Evaluation Report (CAPER), the Tennessee Housing Development Agency (THDA) describes how federal CDBG, ESG, HOME, HOPWA, and HTF funds were spent on housing and community development activities to benefit low and moderate income Tennesseans. A draft of this report will be available for public review and comment at <https://thda.org/research-reports/consolidated-planning> from August 30 - September 17, 2024. An overview of the report in English and Spanish will also be available, along with details about a public meeting on Tuesday, September 17, 2024. Please send questions and accommodation requests to Research@thda.org.
